Unit Delivery Survey

You are invited to participate in a research trial as part of the teaching and learning research by Qiang (Nathan) He in the Faculty of Science, Engineering and Technology of Swinburne University of Technology.

The Research Project

This study aims to collect feedback from students undertaking up Web Development. This is in order to evaluate the delivery of the unit. Results of the evaluation will be of interest to the lecturers to help them determine whether our approach is likely to enhance the learning outcomes of the students.

Voluntary Participation

Your participation in this research is voluntary. You may discontinue participation at any time during the research activity and, on request, will delete data collected from you (until publication, at which point deletion is no longer possible).
